Change in Local Medical Director for Central SWORBHP Services

Effective March 1, 2016, Dr. Matt Davis has taken over as Interim Local Medical Director for the Central SWORBHP Services which include: Middlesex-London EMS, Oxford County Paramedic Services, Medavie EMS Elgin and Oneida Nation of the Thames EMS.

Dr. Davis joined SWORBHP in 2010 as the program's first EMS Medical Fellow. He has held the position of Medical Director of Education since January 2013 and is responsible for the regional training and certification as well as providing oversight to Fanshawe College and Lambton College. He also coordinates and oversees the pre-hospital medical training for EMS residents and students.

Dr. Davis graduated from McMaster Medical School in 2007 and holds an MD and FRCPC in Emergency Medicine from University of Western Ontario (UWO). He is currently an Emergency Physician at London Health Sciences Centre.

We would like to thank Dr. Mike Peddle for his time as Local Medical Director and wish him all the best with his new role.

Please join us in welcoming Dr. Davis to his new role.
