Announcement: Coordinator of Professional Standards and Business Functions

I am very pleased to announce that Greg Graham will be joining the SWORBHP team as Coordinator of Professional Standards and Business Functions Tuesday September 2nd.

Greg comes to us with a wealth of education and experience holding a Masters of Engineering in Electrical Engineering from the University of Toronto, a Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Applied Mathematics and Physics from Western University, and a Bachelor of Education from Western University.

Greg is a versatile resource with global perspective and has twelve years of experience within TD Bank in enterprise workforce management and finance roles. He takes pride in solving complex problems, fostering innovation and enhancing the performance of individuals, teams and organizations.

Prior to joining TD Bank, he worked as an educator within the Waterloo District Regional School Board and with Bronte College of Canada.

Please join me in welcoming Greg to our team.
